Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy Statement

Solar Metals Ltd is committed to improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking. We have set out clear procedures to ensure we meet the requirements of the law. We recognise that without suitable systems and due diligence in our business and supply chains there is a risk that slavery and human trafficking can go unnoticed.

We will ensure all employees are encouraged to raise any concerns or issues/suspicions that they may have regarding slavery or human trafficking, whether it may be within the company or with our supply chains.

Our supply chains include our customers that supply to us, customers that we supply to and suppliers that provide goods and services.

In order to ensure our values are met we will:

- Identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Take steps to mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains
- Ensure we have a good relationship between customer and supplier and that their procedures are in place
- Contracts are adhered to
- Monitor risk areas in our supply chains
- Protect whistle blowers

This policy will be displayed on our website and communicated to everyone working for or on behalf of Solar Metals Ltd.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54 (1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Solar Metals Ltd modern slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 2018.
